Where: Delaware State Fairgrounds, Harrington, Delaware

When: Saturday June 11, 2011 - 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Why: To present a day of affordable fun for children and their families.
To connect families to community resources.
To promote healthy activities for children.
To support youth-serving organizations.
To raise funds for Greater Milford Boys & Girls Club.

How: The “Healthy Kids Expo” connects families to community resources, highlights youth-serving organizations, and invites children to enjoy arts, crafts, and games. Information and education are available to encourage healthy lifestyles.

Families will celebrate “National Get Outdoors Day” at Kids’ Fest by enjoying healthy, active outdoor fun. The day will underscore our connection to natural resources through play and creative activities.

Kids Fest “A Day for Kids” features a Quarter Horse Show in Quillen Arena, pony and cart rides, a petting zoo and antique tractors offering children an opportunity to explore new and interesting activities.

The Inflatable Fair, featuring an array of huge inflatables - bounces, slides, a maze, and an obstacle course, is sure to put a bounce in your step. Carnival games and a train ride add to the fun!

The Youth Talent Show presents an opportunity for our gifted young people to “strut their stuff” before an appreciative audience. A “Kids Fest Teen Idol” contest challenges youth 13 to 19 to compete for prizes and the title.

Entertainment abounds with clowns, jugglers, magicians and characters. A special highlight of Kids Fest 2011 is the featured entertainment stage. Entertainment is free!

Admission is $3 per adult and FREE for Kids; parking is free. Ride and game tickets are 25 for $5. There are many free activities throughout the day.
